MINUTES

OF THE

FIFTY-FIFTH ANNUAL CONVENTION

OF THE

AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

HELD AT SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., AUGUST 18-24, 1905.

SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 19.

The Christian Endeavor session of the Convention held its session on Saturday evening, in the Pavilion, E. L. Powell presiding. After song service, R. H. Waggener, National Superintendent of Christian Endeavor, presented his report, as follows:

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NATIONAL SUPERINTENDENT OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR AMONG THE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF., Aug. 19, 1905.

Dear Brethren and Sisters of the Convention:—I present to you my third annual report as National Superintendent of our Christian Endeavor work.

In some respects this has been a remarkable year in our work. With but little money at our command, and with much travel, we have been able to keep in touch with our societies in a very satisfactory way. Scores of societies have selected and are selecting splendid young men for the ministry, and we hope that within a very few years our Bible colleges will have enrolled hundreds of our Endeavor young men who have had special training at home and who may be backed up by the society at home until a complete Bible course is taken. Of course, we understand this work is slow in starting. It is a matter of education, not only with the young man himself, but with the society, the church and the preacher; but it is coming, and we will more and more see that the Endeavor Society is the organization from which we are to get recruits for the pulpit and for the mission field.

REPORTS.

In several States we have succeeded in getting fuller and better reports than ever before. In some States reports were received from every known society.

INCREASE.

The results from this department have been, in some States, most encouraging and remarkable. The 10 per cent. increase movement has been most satisfactory. In all states where "our people" entered into the Union Endeavor work, the results were most gratifying, and in nearly all cases reported to me we increased and gained more than any other church. Of course our report is for only ten (10) months, but the receipts show a splendid increase into the treasury of all our National Boards, as will be seen by reference to the reports. Surely no small part of this increase is due to the C. E. spirit and work in the churches and ministry.

I am astonished as I go over the country and come into contact with the churches to find the large per cent. of active workers and officers who have been and are active Endeavorers, and this special training is telling wonderfully for the church. If we are patient and faithful in training our children and young people, the future holds for the church even greater things than the past. The splendid influence of Christian Endeavor is now seen and felt in all the walks of life—in business, professions, politics, etc., etc.

It is the universal verdict of our leading men, who stand before the country as reformers, that they have received their greatest encouragement from the enthusiastic, active Christian young men and young women. Brethren, this is surely reward enough to prompt us to larger endeavor for the proper Christian training of our children, the future leaders of this country. What we need and want is more men of the stamp of Roosevelt, Folk, Jerome, etc., etc.

FINANCES.

More and more our societies are giving to our General Boards through and with the church, and not as a separate organization. This is what we have plead for all these years. So it is easy to see that we can not get the exact figures representing the offerings of our young people.

Last year the amount reported to us from our National Boards was $26,216.00, as coming directly from societies of C. E. This year the same Boards report about $28,000.00 given in ten (10) months. We should certainly rejoice in this evident growth in interest and this splendid gift from our young people.

A GROWING INTEREST.

I find a constantly growing interest on the part of our societies in all of our larger work, and this will continue to be more and more the case as we lead and instruct them along these lines.

NUMBER OF SOCIETIES.

We have now about 4,500 Senior and Intermediate societies; 3,000 Junior societies, with a total membership of about 175,000. This is a growth over last year. Very few societies have disbanded, while a large number have been organized. None are reported disbanded where the preacher or church manifested a helpful interest in the work.

YOUNG MEN FOR MINISTRY.

We have planned and worked for this for four years, and we are very pleased to know that this plea is now being pressed by our secretaries, Boards, ministers and churches as never before. All are beginning to see the paramount importance of this special work.

We must enlist more splendid young men in Bible study and to prepare for the ministry. There has never been such an interest in this work before, and no department of our work is so fruitful as the Endeavor Society. Every college man among us is enthusiastic over it, and will lend his hearty support and influence.

OUR STATE PRESIDENTS.

As a rule, those who hold this position are splendid men, fully appreciating the importance of the work and doing everything they can to forward its interests.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

I would emphasize the recommendations of last year:

1. Recognize C. E. in all programs in our conventions.
2. A larger attendance at our conventions.
3. Enthuse the Endeavorers with missionary facts.
4. Continue to press claims of the pulpit upon our young men.
5. Make practical C. E. work a factor in our Bible college work.
6. Keep the spiritual side of Endeavor work prominent before the societies.
7. In all evangelistic work use the "Each one win one" motto for the Endeavorers.
8. Press hard the claims of all our organized work, as a people, upon our young people, and keep them in active, intelligent touch with all of our mission work.

After three years of work as your National Superintendent, and under unfavorable conditions, I desire, as before, to be released from this office. It is a heavy tax upon my time, and fully conscious that I can not do the work as it should be done, I desire that you select another to take up the work and press it to larger and ever larger victories. Any person whom you may select will have my hearty support. The future is bright for Christian Endeavor.

Again thanking you sincerely for this honor conferred upon me and grateful for all favors received at your hands, I am

Yours very fraternally, R. H. WAGGENER,

812 Grand Ave., Kansas City, Mo.

C. M. Chilton, of Missouri, addressed the Convention on "The Christian Endeavor Society and the Pastor."

J. H. O. Smith delivered an address on "Christian Endeavor and Larger Things for the Church."

TUESDAY, AUGUST 22.

The American Christian Missionary Society met at 9 A. M., August 22, in the auditorium of the First Congregational Church, San Francisco, Cal., with the President, E. L. Powell, in the chair.

After leading the Convention in prayer, J. H. Garrison, of Missouri, conducted a Bible Study on the work of the Holy Spirit, for thirty minutes.

George W. Muckley, Corresponding Secretary, of Kansas City, presented the report of the Board of Church Extension. For a copy of this report, address the Corresponding Secretary.

The following committees were announced by the Chairman:

Committee on Recommendations.—Chalmers McPherson, Texas; S. M. Cooper, Ohio; Jno. C. Hay, California; H. A. Denton, Missouri; C. W. Dick, Kentucky; J. H. Garrison, Missouri.

Committee on Nominations.—Frank M. Dowling, California; E. W. Darst, California; C. M. Chilton, Missouri; T. W. Pinkerton, Utah; G. A. Miller, Kentucky; E. C. Sanderson, Oregon; E. W. Allen, Indiana.

Joint Committee on Resolutions.—R. H. Crossfield, Kentucky; Mrs. Anna R. Atwater, Indianapolis; E. C. Sanderson, Oregon; representing respectively the American Christian Missionary Society, Foreign Christian Missionary Society and Christian Woman's Board of Missions.

Committee on Place of Next Meeting.—B. G. Long, New York; J. H. Allen, Missouri; A. C. McKeever, California; Ernest W. Elliott, Kentucky.

Committee on Christian Endeavor.—S. B. White, W. W. Denham, H. A. Denton, W. G. Conley.

Committee on Order of Business.—Walter M. White, California; Benj. L. Smith, Ohio.

The report of the Acting Board of Managers of the American Christian Missionary Society was presented by Benj. L. Smith, Corresponding Secretary. The full report was as follows:

FIFTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ACTING BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

FATHERS AND BRETHREN: Through the manifold blessings of our Heavenly Father, your Acting Board of Managers is able to present to you this Annual Report of what has been in many particulars the best year the Society has ever enjoyed.

Fifty-six years have passed since the organization of the Society. In all these years our God has never failed us. He was with our fathers in this great work, nor has he forsaken their sons. The last years have been our best years. Here we raise our Ebeneezer—for "Hitherto the Lord has led us."

Growth has been the characteristic of the year. Every part of this work has been vibrant with the pulse of growth.

Our missionaries have grown in numbers and efficiency.

Our missions have grown in strength and influence.

The results of missionary labor have enlarged; the record is full of hope and joy.

Our treasury has received more money from the churches than in any previous year

BUREAU OF EVANGELISM

New work has been undertaken and aggressive work done. Most largely this has been in the Department of Evangelism, and will be reported to you by the Superintendent of Evangelism, W. J. Wright.

W. J. WRIGHT

Brother Wright has shown himself to be especially adapted to this Department of Evangelism; with an energy and zeal that knows no rest he has given himself to this work. We earnestly congratulate the brotherhood upon his selection as Superintendent of Evangelism.

We hope that the Department of Evangelism shall come to be considered as a special work and that free-will personal offerings will be made to this department in order that it may not be a charge to the general treasury of the Society, but leave that treasury free to go in the regions where the cause of God is needy and the people ready to die unless the Home Board comes to their help.

This is a glorious work, and Brother Wright is planning larger things for this department; and we commend it to the interest and help of the brotherhood, to the guidance and blessing of our God.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR DEPARTMENT

Miss Sarah Bird Dorman has had charge of the Young People's Department. During the year she prepared special programs for Home Mission topics in Christian Endeavor, in February, June and September. Miss Dorman also conducts the Young People's Department in THE AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY.

By constant correspondence she interested and enlisted a larger number of societies than in any previous year—the result is shown in larger offerings from Christian Endeavor societies than for any similar period, the total being $2,054.93.

PORTO RICO

Our Endeavorers have been supporting the work in Porto Rico. During the past year, fifty-two have been added to the church in our island mission through the efforts of our missionaries and native helpers. We are very grateful to the Endeavorers for their help. The full report giving the Roll of Honor of the contributing societies appears elsewhere.

CHANGE OF PLAN

We are planning to make Idaho the Christian Endeavor State. Here is a great field, scarcely touched by other religious bodies, with little bands of our brethren in various cities and towns, where a little will plant the cause of New Testament Christianity, organize churches, and save souls by scores and hundreds. We do not know of a more inviting, promising field than Idaho. We sincerely hope this Convention will bid our Endeavorers Godspeed in their effort to save Idaho for Christ our King.

This department will, of course, continue under Miss Dorman's efficient leadership.

THE FIELD SECRETARY

Geo. B. Ranshaw continues his service as Field Secretary. When in the office he has given his attention to editorial work upon THE AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY and Our Home Field. A part of his time has, however, been spent in the field delivering home missionary addresses before conventions and congregations, visiting individuals and preachers, with a view of obtaining offerings upon the Annuity Plan, Bequests or Special Gifts.

FIELD WORK

In November the State conventions of Alabama, Georgia and South Carolina were visited. Upon this southern trip a visit was made to a number of strong churches in Kentucky and Tennessee, resulting in much good to the cause. In the spring thirteen district conventions in Indiana and many individual congregations were visited, two trips were made through Illinois, and appointments were filled in Ohio, Kentucky and Missouri. At the State conventions of Missouri and Iowa in June, addresses were also made. Upon this trip ten days were spent in Iowa looking up Annuitants. The most of July has been largely spent in taking the offering at different points in Illinois, Iowa and Kentucky.

The Field Secretary reports a steadily growing interest in the work of Home Missions, manifested in increasing calls for rallies; addresses and convention dates; requests for literature, programs, the circulation of general literature, and the uniformly enthusiastic reception of the representatives of the work. He believes that more systematic work should be done in the way of keeping the churches in living touch with the work, as rapidly as the exigencies of the office and the multiplying calls will permit.

The possibilities of this work are limitless. The demands increase with the development. Not only must larger plans be made and larger offerings called for, but the churches already alert to duty, as well as those that are wofully remiss, must be brought into closer personal touch and more intimate organic relation with the great ganglia of missions. Convention programs should not be considered worthy or in any sense adequate, unless provision be made thereon for an address upon Home Missions. No church should consider itself abreast of the times unless it have an address from a personal representative of the Home Mission cause at least once every two years.

The work of the Field Secretary is the work of personal contact. It can not under the present plan be reduced to reportable proportions. Its province is educative, looking to the future; its chief value is inspirational, seeking to arouse latent possibilities; in these elements it has been well worth its cost hitherto, but in the years to come will be seen and realized its true value and fruitage. For in the cause of missions, as in the preaching of the gospel,, Paul's logic holds:

"How shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach except they be sent?"

SUMMARY OF WORK

Missionaries employed, 392, 117 of whom were supported by direct appropriation from our treasury, and 275 by our appropriations to the various State Boards of Missions; 142 churches were organized and 16,094 persons brought into the church, of whom 8,356 were by baptism and 7,738 by commendation or statement.

A YEAR OF BLESSING

Throughout all the months of the year we have had constant reports of our missionaries and their great work and especially of God's favor upon their work. Souls have been led to Christ by scores and hundreds.

OKLAHOMA As an example of the work done by the American Christian Missionary Society, we give part of the report of J. M. Monroe. From the very day when the reservation was opened to settlement, this fair territory has been a ward of the Home Society. No money was ever better spent. No field has ever yielded such constant fruit of weighted sheaves, so thickly strewn upon its golden acres, as this great commonwealth of culture, wealth, refinement and unceasing enterprise. It would be hard to name the Oklahoma heroes, for there is scarcely a pioneer but deserves to be thus named.

OKLAHOMA STATISTICS Last year the Territorial Board passed a resolution stipulating that the people of Oklahoma should ask the help of the Home Board but for two years more. After that it was their determination to become self-supporting, thus turning the bounty of the Board to other fields of equal or greater need. The figures given are from September 15, 1904, to July 15, 1905. It should be remembered that all this work has been done under the direction and by the help of the American Christian Missionary Society.

LIVING LINK MISSIONARIES AND PASTORS

Following is a list of Living Link missionaries, their fields of labor, and their supporting churches:

Geo. T. Thomas, Oney; supported by the El Reno church.

C. F. Trimble, Sayre; supported by the Guthrie Milling Co., and the church.

R. S. Smedley, Geary; supported by J. M. Monroe and wife.

I. W. Cameron, Kremlin; supported by the C. W. B. M., assisted by the A. C. M. S. (bonus for building).

C. M. Barnes, Lawton; supported by the C. W. B. M., assisted by the A. C. M. S. (bonus).

F. D. Wharton, Newkirk; H. T. Morrison, Lawton; and E. R. Clarkson, Weatherford, have labored as missionary ministers to the churches named, under the support and direction of the A. C. M. S. and Territorial Board.

OKLAHOMA BUILDINGS

Brother Monroe says: "There are organizations in all of the twenty-six county seats of Oklahoma and church buildings in all but two. During the last year church houses have been erected in four of the county seats. During the two years that J. M. Monroe has been Corresponding Secretary, eighty-three church buildings have been erected, as against seventy-three the preceding fourteen years. Two years ago five counties had no church buildings; now all have buildings, aggregating seventeen. In the same time nine counties have each more than doubled the number of church buildings, increasing them from twenty-nine to forty-nine. The aim of the Territorial Board is to take Oklahoma for primitive Christianity and to house the Disciples in the many growing cities and villages."

O. P. SPIEGEL

As another example of what has been possible for missions, we recite the work of O. P. Spiegel in the South, with 590 sermons, 210 added to the churches, the cause strengthened throughout the region of his work, gifts enlarged, and interest in all mission work stimulated.

JOHN A. STEVENS

Wherever he has labored John A. Stevens has been a great blessing to our cause, as well as a faithful and untiring servant of the Board. With 365 days of service he reports 130 additions to the churches, having delivered 263 sermons. Mrs. Stevens is his valued co-laborer in every mission field.

R. S. SMEDLEY

In Oklahoma Territory one of our special evangelists is R. S. Smedley, supported by Brother and Sister J. M. Monroe. He reports 365 days of service, 199 sermons given, and 128 additions to the churches; five churches organized, and ten houses of worship built in his district under his leadership.

These examples by no means complete the list of our heroic workers. These are but mentioned and their great work sketched in merest outline to exhibit the nature of the work and the success attending it.

BUILDINGS

In a number of most important places new houses have been built and the cause has been put upon a firm footing. The churches at Baton Rouge, Mobile, Charleston, Portland (Ore.), Berkeley (Cal.), St. Paul, Carondelet and St. Louis (Mo.), have finished their houses of worship, and have entered their courts with joy and gladness, and have been able to do this by the help, and only by the help, of the Board of Home Missions.

GALVESTON Weak places have been made strong. Galveston, so sorely afflicted by the flood a few years ago, has been put upon her feet, held up by the strong arm of the brotherhood, and is now about ready to assume self-support.

ALAMEDA Alameda has passed from blessing to blessing, from prosperity to prosperity, under the leadership of P. C. Macfarlane, and looks forward to the day, not far hence, when it shall walk entirely alone.

NEW ENGLAND At the importunate call of the brethren and as our financial condition has warranted we have gone back to New England in the effort to help more largely there than we have ever done before. We have waited in vain for the coming of some heroic disciple who would give splendidly for the New England field that we might enter it upon a scale of service worthy of its prestige and importance. Unless we have larger gifts for these fields of special importance the work must halt.

GENERALLY SPEAKING We have appointed new missionaries here and there in various parts of the country; we have assisted more State boards than ever before, and have endeavored to keep the entire work committed to your Board at the very highest standard consistent with the obligation of avoiding debt. The actual results speak for themselves.

CITIES We again call attention to the work done in the cities; not a tithe of what ought to be done, but still an earnest of what we would like to do. To-day we have missions in Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Charleston, S. C., Tampa, Mobile, New Orleans, Galveston, San Antonio (Mexican), San Francisco, Alameda, Portland, Ore., St. Paul, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland (German), Greater Pittsburg and others. All of these places we have helped as we could, and our help has been worth far more than the measure of the very limited amount of money we had to expend in these cities. It should be ever borne in mind that this work, by reason of the increased demands in mission territory and the usual size of the appropriations required for city missionary purposes, must halt upon an altogether inadequate treasury.

OUR "OWN HOME MISSIONARY" CHURCHES

Many churches have been blessed by adopting a special field and a special missionary as their own—the Living Link has tied them in a close personal touch and interest with both fields and missionary. Three hundred dollars ($300) on the Home Field will give a church its "Own Home Missionary." We would, in passing, commend to the preachers and churches this plan, by which every church could be made to feel the thrill of personal interest and direct responsibility in the field of Home Missionary effort. The fact that those who have adopted the plan enthusiastically commend it, and the further fact that many more are working to that desired end, might suggest to many the advisability of at least a test of the plan. The officers of the Society would be glad to lend their help to any church desiring information and inspiration upon this plan of service.

A number of other churches are planning to support their "Own Home Missionary" in the near future. It adds greatly to the missionary interest of a congregation to have its own special field.

YOUR OWN REPRESENTATIVE

We take great pleasure in reporting the growth of interest in the plan and method of individuals having their own representative on the Home Missionary Field.

Our Brother Thomas W. Phillips has for many years had his own representative on the Home Field. Wm. F. Cowden represented him as Superintendent of Missions in the Northwest. Recently John A. Joyce has been his representative in Western Pennsylvania, and splendid work has been done. Mrs. S. M. Cooper maintained J. O. Shelburne for one year in Cincinnati missionary work. Howard Rash was represented by Frank L. Van Voorhis at Weatherford, Oklahoma, for a year. J. M. Monroe and wife maintain their own representative, R. S. Smedley of Oklahoma. Mrs. Mary S. Holbrook has for several years maintained her own representative in South Dakota, but did the work through her home church at Onawa, Iowa.

We hope this plan and method will very largely grow and that we may have a hundred more men and women whom God has blessed with prosperity, each maintaining a special missionary on the Home Field at a cost of only $300 a year.

PUBLICATIONS

We have reason to record our grateful appreciation to those church papers which helped us so faithfully and well during the year. In recounting the work of the year, we make glad record of the substantial advance made by the publications of the Society.

THE AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY THE AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY is our monthly magazine and carries special issues, including "The Year Book," the "Annual Report," and other marked features. It has departments—"The Evangelistic Work," conducted by W. J. Wright; our "Young People's Department," conducted by Sarah Bird Dorman. The magazine is placed at the low rate of twenty-five cents per year, and is growing substantially in the favor of the people. We want every preacher, church officer, Sunday-school superintendent, and Christian Endeavor leader to become not only a subscriber to this magazine, but an agent for its general circulation. No better means can be supplied for keeping the people informed upon Home Missionary topics and the wide fields of home opportunities. We should be glad to have helpful articles and stimulating reports from ministers and others for publication in this, the Home Mission medium par excellence.

"OUR HOME FIELD" Is our quarterly folio at ten cents a year. It is packed with missionary matter, and is a great educator. The increased circulation of these publications means a greater future for Home Missions. We ask our ministers and friends to help us put Our Home Field in 50,000 homes of our people. This is a matter which has been overlooked or neglected by many of our preachers. Their help here would advance the cause of Home Missions immeasurably. Churches and schools should order packages of the Home Field for free distribution to all members and friends of both church and Bible-school. It will widen the local interest and stimulate to missionary activity. We can not too urgently recommend the wide circulation of our missionary papers. The paper, Our Home Field, is by all odds the cheapest agency we can have. The postage on tracts and leaflets in proportion to weight is eight times as much as for the paper. It furnishes fresh news from the field. It keeps our brethren in close touch with the work and workers, and helps mightily to make Home Missions a living reality. With profound gratitude for the help of our friends in the past we ask their continued assistance in our efforts to secure widespread circulation of our literature.

ROLL OF HONOR FOR SECURING FULL APPORTIONMENT

The apportionment is not a dun, nor an assessment, nor a demand. Only a suggestion. Any apportionment will be increased or lowered at the request of the church. The apportionment, therefore, should not be rejected. It is educational, inspirational, and suggests a definite goal to be reached. It is a help, not a hindrance.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' RALLY DAY

We have been fortunate in securing the services of J. W. Carpenter, of Virginia, Illinois, and he has furnished us an excellent exercise for Boys' and Girls' Rally Day for 1905—"SEEDTIME AND HARVEST."

We are pushing this day with all energy and earnestly ask a place for it in the program of every school in the brotherhood. If the future church is to be truly missionary, we must make Boys' and Girls' Rally Day for America the greatest day in the year; as this covers State Missions as well as National Home Missions, it should occupy no secondary place. We ask for $15,000 from our schools for Boys' and Girls' Rally Day this year. We wish all superintendents to remember that fifty per cent. of the net proceeds of the day will be remitted by us to the State from whence it comes.

PERMANENT NAMED FUNDS

Experience has shown the unquestioned success of the Permanent Named Memorial Funds. We have fifteen such funds. Six of these are on the Annuity Plan; that is, the donors needing the income of the money during their lifetime, have given us $5,000 on the Annuity Plan with instructions that at their death it shall be made a Permanent Named Memorial Fund.

THE COLUMBUS A. MEE FUND Columbus A. Mee, of Cleveland, Tennessee, gave to his wife during her lifetime certain property; at her death it will become a Columbus A. Mee Named Memorial Fund.

THE FRANCES T. MEE FUND Columbus A. Mee had already given us a fund of $5,000 on the Annuity Plan. At the death of Sister Mee this will become a Named Memorial Fund in memory of Mrs. Frances T. Mee. Thus this man of faith and works erects for himself and his worthy consort a monument of blessing, more lasting than shafts of stone or tablets of bronze.

THE FRANCES M. DRAKE FUND The Francis M. Drake Named Memorial Fund supported O. G. White in Baltimore, Maryland. His work is successful, souls are being won into the kingdom, and the brothers and friends of the noble man of God have the sweet satisfaction of knowing that "he being dead, yet speaketh."

THE HENRY GEROULD FUND The Henry Gerould Fund has been used by consent of Sister Gerould in the spirit of sacrifice and service in the support of Chas. E. Smith, as missionary pastor of the church at Charleston, South Carolina. No worthier work ever enlisted the sympathies and help of the servants of God.

THE LATHROP COOLEY FUND The Lathrop Cooley Fund has been used by direction of Brother Cooley in supporting L. E. Scott as city missionary in San Francisco. He says: "Our new church is nearing completion, which will aid us in our work very much. Our C. E. Society has a membership of twenty-one workers, and the Junior is a promising work. The brotherhood never spent $300 per year to better advantage than it has in this field."

THE GEORGE BATES FUND The George Bates Memorial Fund has been used in supporting H. J. Kirschstein, Omaha, Nebraska. The reports show the church built up and the work at Florence greatly enlarged.

'A FRIEND OF HOME MISSIONS MEMORIAL FUND Was used in support of the work at Atlanta, Georgia. Bernard P. Smith is now the missionary of the West End Church, Atlanta, and is doing a splendid work for those people.

THE MARGARET OLIVER MEMORIAL FUND Was used to support our work in Western Pennsylvania. F. A. Bright is the missionary. His work is under the direction of the Board of Missions of Western Pennsylvania. The progress in his work is a matter of pride.

We have the following Named Memorial Funds which are as yet on the Annuity Plan; that is, the donors receive the interest during their lifetime: Frances T. Mee, S. R. and Mary C. Ezzell, Nellie Eckert, "A Friend," another "A Friend," and Mrs. Ella Reed Robbins.

NEW FUNDS During the year we have had three Named Memorial Funds. "A Friend" has given us $5,000 on the Annuity Plan. At death it becomes a Named Memorial Fund. This friend will receive the interest at six per cent. during life and knows that through all the coming years the Gospel will be preached in the name of the donor.

MR. AND MRS. T. E. TAYLOR FUND

The children of Brother and Sister Taylor, of Stockport, Iowa, have created a Named Memorial Fund in loving memory of their parents. How sweet will be their memory! If the sainted father and mother are interested in earthly affairs, what a comfort it must be to them thus to be remembered and have their work follow them!

NORMAN A. PHILLIPS FUND

Thomas W. Phillips, ever ready to help this work of Home Missions, has been kind enough to give us $5,000 to create a Named Memorial Fund in loving memory of his son, Norman A. Phillips. This fund becomes immediately available, and by this help the missionary will preach the gospel through all the years to come.

We unhesitatingly commend the Permanent Named Memorial Funds to the brethren. It is a memorial far more beautiful and enduring than brass or marble; far more tender and blessed than any other we can place in memory of our departed loved ones.

BEQUESTS

We recommend our ministers to teach and preach to the churches upon the value and importance of Christian benevolence, laying stress upon the needs and the basic value of Home Missionary work. Talk to the people in their homes about making bequests to Home Missions. Offer to write their wills for them or to have them written. Advise our Secretary whenever a visit from a representative of the Society would be helpful in securing a bequest. This is the Lord's business and should be furthered by the Lord's servants.

We have bequests pending settlement of the estates of our departed friends amounting to over $100,000.

The largest bequest is from the estate of Brother Thomas K. Bondurant, of Illinois. This estate is to be kept intact for ten years, and then distribution is to be made. It is estimated that the proportion coming to the American Christian Missionary Society will be between $60,000 and $70,000. This is to be an endowment fund, and only the interest can be used in the work. During the last year we received the following:

H. W. Stewart, Los Angeles, Cal.	$16.95
Eunice T. Harrison, Painesville, O.	45.98
R. B. Cole, Dallas, Tex.	75.00
Sarah J. Campbell, Teegarden, O.	26.40
Total	$164.33

This is the smallest amount we have received in bequests in many years.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I hereby give and bequeath to the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, whose headquarters are at Cincinnati, Ohio, the sum of $————to be used for preaching the gospel in America.

(If the bequest is real estate, it should be particularly described and the laws of the State in which you live particularly complied with.)

* Being often requested to furnish a form of bequest, we submit the following:

A NEW FINANCIAL FEATURE

During the past year, through the offices of one of our general evangelists, a brother in the South, S. L. Crawford, presented to the American Christian Missionary Society a life insurance policy for $10,000, which at his death is to be paid into the treasury to create a Permanent Fund for Home Missionary work in his own State.

Brother Crawford will keep up the premiums, and the Society gladly assumes the trust obligations. The gift suggests a large field of possibilities. Very often beneficiaries named in life policies die before the assured, and it is not desirable or expedient to designate other persons as beneficiaries. No better disposition could be made of the policy than to present it to the Home Society. If a policy is within a few years of settlement, the Board might make satisfactory arrangements to carry the premiums until maturity. Correspondence upon this line is solicited.

Insurance policies are valuable in the Lord's work as in business and domestic interests. Ten thousand dollars will keep two missionaries employed so long as there is necessity of preaching the gospel anywhere.

WIDE-OPEN DOORS

No report, however incomplete, could be in any sense adequate that did not tell of the great "Wide-Open Doors."

Since we have been able to help more in the last few years, new hope has sprung up in the hearts of our scattered brethren, and struggling bands everywhere have felt that possibly the time had come when the Home Board would help them to establish the cause in their midst. As a consequence, we have to-day five times as many appeals as we had ten years ago, and the cries for assistance multiply.

HONOLULU

From far-off Honolulu comes the cry ringing on the waves of the Pacific, pleading for help, asking for adequate support until they can build a larger house in a better location. We have heard the cry and our hearts move us to follow the flag to Honolulu. They have selected G. D. Edwards, of Nevada, Missouri, as their minister.

IDAHO

We have a list of eighteen places in Idaho where we have little bands of brethren that are nuclei for churches. The ground is not yet preoccupied by other religious bodies. Our plan is to make Idaho the Christian Endeavor State by having our Endeavorers select that as their especial field of labor, and, with a strong effort, in five years plant the cause of New Testament Christianity in every permanent city and town in the State. "Idaho for Christ" is truly a Christian Endeavor war cry, and we hope this Convention will commend this especial work to our Endeavorers.

MONTANA

A message from Montana speaks as we can not hope to: HELENA, Mont., July 18, 1905.—Dear Brother Smith: We have not taken any offering for Home Missions, that is, for the American Christian Missionary Society; but for "Montana Missions" we have gone down deep. This congregation of not over 125 all told gave $157 for Montana Missions. We have given to the C. W. B. M. and a little to Church Extension, and all our preachers feel that there is a lack of appreciation of the possibilities of this State, and, outside of our own resources, this State receives just one thousand dollars from the C. W. B. M.

We are all heartily in favor of all missions, but we who know the needs, see the opportunities, hear the cries for help, feel that there is a mistake or a misunderstanding somewhere when the Methodists, Presbyterians, Catholics and Episcopal churches are each of them spending thousands of dollars annually to Christianize (?) Montana, while the bare pittance of $1,000 comes into this State for Missions.

There is not a State in the Union that begins to compare with Montana, member for member and dollar for dollar. I have not the figures at hand, but intend to make a showing along these lines in the near future.

If the bodies mentioned find this such a profitable field for their mutilated gospel, why is it not a fair and profitable field for "the faith once delivered to the saints"?

In the windows of the banks at Helena, Butte and Anaconda, there are cards in more than a dozen languages, advertising their foreign exchanges. If these cities are not mission fields, foreign fields at that, than tell me where the heathen are. Here is "The Wide-Open Door."

Not only is this need great, but there are many smaller growing towns where a splendid response to the gospel will be made when presented.

Fifteen churches in this State have sustained our State evangelist during the year just closing. Are there fifteen churches in any of the other States, of like numbers with ours, doing a like work? On this basis Missouri ought to have fifteen State evangelists. Indiana should have ten.

In the face of these facts, do you think Montana is getting justice in her pittance of $1,000 for missions? This is but a dot of the "i" with reference to Montana. There is no better mission field in the world. There are no people more liberal. Do you think they should be passed by?

Yours,

S. W. BROWN.

THE SCANDINAVIANS

Our hearts should thrill at this great voice of opportunity from a people coming rapidly into the light. "For a great door and effectual is opened unto me" (I. Cor. xvi. 9). "Behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it" (Rev. iii. 8). Julius Stone is a missionary to the Scandinavians, under the American Christian Missionary Society. A true, faithful man. He has found a decided unrest among the Scandinavians and has arranged for these conferences of the people and ministers on the subject of Christian Union. The report of the third conference is printed below. It is thrilling in interest and full of prophecy of great things for the New Testament faith. Does not your heart burn within you with a desire to teach them the way of the Lord more perfectly?

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., June 13, 1905.

Dear Brother Smith: Am just back from the Christian Unity Conference among Scandinavians which was held at Hutchinson, Minn., from May 30th to June 5th. There were about one hundred brethren present, of whom thirty-six were preachers. Three sessions were held each day. The entire time was taken up with the study of the first principles taught by the primitive church.

The Scandinavians are fast coming to see that Christian Unity means a complete surrender to the New Testament teaching and practice. The discussions were carried on in a sweet spirit. There was not an intimation of compromise or federation of any kind. The first subject discussed was the "Bond of Peace"—the seven units—one body, one spirit, one hope, one faith, one baptism, and one God (Eph. iv. 3-7). These units were taken up one by one and carefully considered. A whole day was devoted to the unit, ONE BAPTISM.

The result of this discussion was a decided victory for immersion, and that session ended when five preachers who had been active on the opposition arose and asked to be baptized immediately.

The preachers, who are leaders among those who believed in infant baptism, were convinced of their error and publicly announced their desire to be baptized. The entire audience left the church and went down to the river, where Brother Adams, of Kansas, immersed them. Others signified their intention to be baptized when they return to their homes. All gainsayers were silenced. One of those who were immersed is the Secretary of the Norwegian-Danish Free Church Association, and the others were men of great influence among the Scandinavian people.

Another subject discussed was the government of the church and the officers of the same, as taught in the New Testament. This subject, too, was very carefully studied.

You must understand that as yet there has not been any organization of a church effected, but that these conferences are purely along educational lines. It will take some time to bring about visible results of this kind, but the people are learning. I am trying to teach as much as I can, and so are others who hold the same opinion as we do, but who have not identified themselves with the organization.

Understand, some of these people are Disciples in faith and spirit, but as yet are not organized into a body of Disciples. This, of course, will come in time; but we must educate.

I was re-elected a member of the committee on program and arrangements. Am glad to be able to serve in this capacity, as the subjects chosen for the programs are very educational in value.

Another meeting will be held in the latter part of November or the first part of December, the place not yet chosen. Thousands of our people are interested, mostly Danes and Norwegians. Two papers of large circulation have taken a stand on the right side. They will publish all the proceedings of the last meeting at Hutchison. We are also trying to have the proceedings in the "Scandinavian," a Norwegian paper published in Chicago which has a circulation of 36,000.

Brethren attending the conference represented the following States: Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, North and South Dakota, Illinois, Nebraska, Kansas, Oregon and Washington. A good spirit prevailed and the brethren were greatly benefited. These meetings have enlarged my circle of acquaintances, which gives me a greater opportunity to spread the gospel as it is in Christ Jesus.

Yours for the kingdom of Christ,

JULIUS STONE.

MOUNTAIN WHITES

The two million people in the mountain districts are sending up the cry of their needs to the Lord of the heavens and earth. We want to hear and heed their cry. The State of Kentucky is doing a noble service among these people, but there are thousands yet unreached, not only in Kentucky, but also in Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas, the Carolinas and Virginia.

A BACKWARD LOOK

"Look to the Past for instruction, to the Future for inspiration," and yet we are able to testify that a large measure of our inspiration for the burdens we bear and the tasks we share, comes from a backward glance along the way we have already trodden.

In 1895 our brotherhood gave to the American Christian Missionary Society $21,641.83.

Then began our growth. The offerings were, in 1896	$28,690.84

1897	32,265.04
1898	41,345.67
1899	100,550.99
1900	63,627.30
1901	91,716.68
1902	82,930.93
1903	102,246.10
1904	85,755.96
1905	100,323.03

Our total gifts for the last ten years to the treasury have reached $729,452.54. We have received fifteen Permanent Named Memorial Funds of $5,000 each, making a Permanent Endowment Fund of $75,000; seven of these are as yet on the Annuity Plan. In the name of each of these we guarantee to preach the gospel through a home missionary through all the years.

In addition, we have received $62,403.34 on the Annuity Plan. During the ten years we have received on the Annuity Plan $107,920. Of this sum $2,750 was turned over to the B. N. E. E.; $333.33 to Church Extension; and $333.33 to the C. W. B. M.; $2,000 has passed into the General Fund by the death of the annuitant; $5,000 was transferred to make the John Reed Permanent Named Memorial Fund; and $4,100 has become a Permanent Contingent Fund, leaving a balance of $93, 403.34 in the Annuity Fund.

Subtracting the Permanent Named Memorial Funds which are still on the Annuity Plan, on which we pay interest, namely $31,000, leaves net $61,403.34 on the Annuity Plan. We have a total endowment fund of $138,503.34. Part of this is in real estate given us by our friends; the remainder is carefully invested by the Finance Committee—H. T. Loomis, C. J. Neare and S. M. Cooper.

TABULATED RESULTS

During the ten years your missionaries under the Home Board have organized 854 churches; have baptized 50,013 persons into the church; have received 41,331 by letter or otherwise; making a total of 91,344 additions to the church. These are results over which all good men can rejoice.

CONCLUSION

We give renewed thanks to God for his grace and guidance; we should daily seek his divine direction in this work, placing uppermost the extension of his kingdom and the salvation of souls.

We have done our work in all good conscience according to the directions of the National Convention. Our only hope is that plans may be made to place this work freely before the churches, without smothering it. Let it have a fair hearing. The demands made upon this Board are double what they were five years ago.

Let us arise in the strength of our God and the glorious gospel of the New Testament and possess the land! Does not the exalted Christ seek our help now as God did that of Israel of old—"Arise; shine; for thy light is come and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. Lift up thine eyes roundabout and see. All they gather themselves together; they come to thee; thy sons shall come from far; thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side."

Fidelity to Christ and his gospel is the price of this blessing, and our fidelity will be the measure of our joy in that great day when the immortal consummation shall come and the kingdoms of this world shall have become the kingdoms of our Lord and his Christ.

For the Acting Board of Managers—

S. M. COOPER, Chairman.
BENJAMIN L. SMITH, Corresponding Secretary.
GEO. B. RANSHAW, Field Secretary.

By motion, the reports of the Board of Church Extension and the Board of Managers of the American Christian Missionary Society were accepted by the Convention.

An address on "The Second Chapter of Church History" was delivered by R. H. Crossfield, of Kentucky. The going out of the Jerusalem church to Samaria, Galilee; a strong plea for Home Missions.

The following home missionaries were introduced to the Convention by Benjamin L. Smith; T. S. Handsaker, East Oregon; L. E. Scott, San Francisco, Cal.; Charles E. Smith, Charleston, S. C.; H. J. Loken, Richmond, Cal.; Grant K. Lewis, Southern California; J. A. L. Romig, British Columbia; H. J. Kirschstein, Omaha, Neb.; P. C. MacFarlane, Alameda, Cal.; T. W. Pinkerton, Salt Lake City, Utah; R. N. Davis, Santa Cruz, Cal.; O. P. McGaughey, Everett, Wash.; E. W. Darst, Berkeley, Cal.

The Statistical Report was presented to the Convention by the Statistical Secretary, G. A. Hoffmann, of St. Louis, Mo. The report was as follows:

REPORT OF THE STATISTICAL SECRETARY

The work of the Disciples of Christ and the growth of the churches continue with unabated interest. The great ingathering in various churches during the year and the reports of additions from all parts of our country clearly indicate that New Testament Christianity is gaining rapidly. The fields in which our growth seems to be most clearly marked are Oklahoma, Indian Territory, Louisiana, California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Pennsylvania. The gain in these States seems to be making from 4 to 10 per cent. per annum. There are single congregations and districts of churches in other States where the gains are fully as good, but taken as States the reports from these are most encouraging. In some Eastern States every church is expected to have a minister giving his time and attention to pastoral work. In some Western and Southern States where once-a-month preaching largely prevails. from 10 to 50 per cent. only have adequate pastoral care and training. As many of these members from country churches move to our cities, and as they are untrained in church life and undeveloped in spirituality, thousands are annually lost to our cause. Were it not for this great leakage as well as other shrinkages in our membership, our gains would astound the world. We have the greatest recruiting officers among men. Many thousands are continuallly converted from sin to the army of our Lord. But the number of officers who are to drill this immense and growing army of new recruits is insufficient to prepare them for battle. And yet it must not be forgotten that while the membership in the Churches of Christ gained 90 per cent. since 1890, the students in our colleges studying for the Christian ministry have gained 117 per cent. While among some of the denominations there is a great drouth of young men entering the Christian ministry, we have this remarkable gain to report among the Disciples of Christ. In order to show these and other gains we present to you the following table:

	Churches.	Ministers.	Members.	Students Studying for the Ministry.	Amounts contributed to National Missionary Societies.	Amounts contributed to State Missionary Societies.	No. of churches contributing to National Christian Missionary Societies.	No. of churches contributing to State and not to National Societies.	Whole No. of churches contributing to missions.
1890.....	8,096	4,039	641,000	468	$146,243	$132,155	1,564	1,200*	2,764
1895.....	9,169	4,929	889,019	690	208,616	148,000	3,156	1,400*	2,764
1900.....	10,101	5,737	1,120,000	807	413,641	126,075	4,075	1,400*	5,556
1904.....	10,985	6,417	1,233,000	1,017	532,717	208,082	4,615	1,800*	6,415

*Partly estimated.

These figures on the gains of ministerial students in our colleges should be approached with the following consideration: First. The number of ministers who labored acceptably for churches fifteen years ago without college preparation was much larger than now. Second. The time spent in school in the preparation for the Christian ministry is at least 20 per cent. longer now than fifteen years ago. Third. The growth and demands of our churches are localizing the labors of hundreds of our ministers and making of them Scriptural shepherds of a single congregation where formerly they were the great preachers of a district or State. These and other reasons might be given to indicate that if our growth in the ministry were even 50 per cent. larger than it is at present, there would be no difficulty in readily adjusting and utilizing such a gain. Such an increase in our ministry would double our net gains in membership; it would deepen the spirituality of our people and even more rapidly increase our offerings for missions.

This report will not endeavor to present the annual statistics until the close of the year. Enough is known, however, to say that this has been a most prosperous year. Especially has this been true in matters of education. It seems now that we have made the most rapid progress in our history. The attendance of students has been largest, the buildings constructed more numerous and costly, and the amounts added to our endowment funds more benevolent than that of any previous year. Our missionary offerings thus far also show more than the normal average gains. While many of our ministers have not yet learned how to make four strong appeals annually, for Foreign, Home and State Missions and Church Extension and largely increase and extend the work among our auxiliaries to the C. W. B. M. and also secure two liberal offerings from our Bible Schools, one each for Home and Foreign Missions, the growth of our mission work, when all the conditions are known and considered, is the miracle among the Disciples of Christ. The fact that single congregations give more for missions now annually than the whole brotherhood gave in the year 1872 to your then only National Society, would strike the calm and dispassionate student with wonder and admiration.

There are twenty Christian weekly journals and seven monthlies issued by private individuals or companies in the brotherhood. In addition to these, our National Missionary Societies issue seven journals, more for the purpose of advancing and educating the brotherhood in the missionary cause. The seven monthlies issued by private individuals are of local and limited circulation only. The same is true of seven of the twenty weeklies. Three of the twenty have a large general circulation, but it is among the younger element of the church. Four of these journals have a general circulation and are more or less antagonistic to organized missionary work. Four of these periodicals have a local circulation extending over several States, while two may be said to have a more or less general circulation over the whole brotherhood. The press is today one of the greatest powers on earth. Where the minister speaks to one hundred hearts and homes, the press speaks to its thousands. No wonder one of the most prolific writers and inspired apostles exclaimed, "These things are written that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God, and believing, ye might have life through his name." It is our astonishment that these periodicals, under their management and competition, have reached their present high literary excellence, scriptural accuracy and spiritual tone. It is also a surprise that a brotherhood as large and as Scripturally wide awake has never as a body done anything that would place our main publishing interests on a broad, liberal, scriptural basis that would be ever true to Christ and serve him only. The first New Testament church had all things in common and the Disciples of Christ should own and control at least this great power. It should be owned in common by the best of men and stand as a finger-board pointing to Christ and lead the church to a higher appreciation of their relations to God. What is said here must not be construed as reflecting in the least degree on any editor or publishing-house, but it is neither business sense nor the wisdom that cometh down from above to allow things to drift as we have done in the past.

This report would not be complete without calling attention to three things in our national and State missionary work. First. We are not utilizing the personal in missions as we should. Money is absolutely necessary to missions, but many give money whose lives are not in it. Many will never give money until their lives are first put into it. Hence he great need of city, county and district missions, where you can put men's lives at work as well as their money. Second. The Southern and Western fields are either a great blessing or a great hindrance. A blessing if you will follow your brethren with the home missionary to plant churches at their doors. A curse if you, by your neglect, will allow the wolf of sin to devour what spiritual life they possessed at the old home from whence they came. Third. Your home missionary board should have the means to support the greatest preachers and best organizers in the American cities we have on earth. If you wish that your Statistical Secretary shall bring you reports to gladden your hearts, these things must be done and the surprises of the past in our growth shall be as the foothills are to the mountains beyond, and many will rise up and call you blessed for bringing to their hearts the true teaching of our Lord.

ADDENDA

At the close of the year on September 30, the reports received indicated that our statistics would stand as follows:

Number of churches	11,110
Number of communicants	1,238,515
Number of Bible-schools	8,761
Number enrolled in Bible-schools	850,500
Number of ministers	6,675

The gain in membership is fully 30,000. This is not shown in the above table, as large reductions were made in several States where statistics had not been carefully gathered.

The following table shows a gain in the general receipts of $414,760. The most important is that of missions.

Missionary Receipts.

Foreign Christian Missionary Society	$255,923.00
Christian Women's Board of Missions	175,409.00
American Christian Missionary Society	100,323.00
Board of Church Extension	96,655.00
State and District Missions	216,217.00
Miscelaneous Missions	30,000.00	$874,517.00

Education and Benevolence.

Buildings and endowments of schools	390,000.00
National Benevolent Association	79,732.00
Ministerial Relief	8,291.00
Kentucky Widows' and Orphans' Home	8,000.00	486,023.00

Local Church Work.

Ministerial Support	4,375,000.00
Incidental Church Expenses	1,094,000.00
Church Buildings	728,000.00
Church and Bible-school Literature	350,000.00	6,547,000.00
		$7,907,540.00

These reports indicate great activity in some respects and average growth in all respects. The watchword, a $1,000,000 for missions by 1909 can easily be realized. It will require a gain of only about four per cent. per annum to reach this, while we gained thirteen per cent. this last year. It would require but little more gain during the new year than during the year just closed to reach the $1,000,000 mark by Sept. 30, 1906. By a little effort all around this can be done. The Churches of Christ are rapidly becoming what they should be—the greatest missionary force on earth!

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 17, 1905.

FRANCIS A. WRIGHT,
Public Accountant.

S. H. Bartlett, of Ohio, presented the report of the Committee on Union with the Free Baptists, as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE WITH THE FREE BAPTISTS

To the American Christian Missionary Society, in Convention Assembled:

DEAR BRETHREN—We refer you to the last annual Minutes for particulars concerning the formation of a committee of twelve from this body, to consult with a similar committee of twelve, selected by the General Conference of the Free Baptists, "on all questions relating to the union of the two bodies." The persons appointed to serve on these two committees are there given. The Free Baptist committee is "a standing committee on conference with other Christian people, to meet similar committees which may be appointed by other bodies, and consult respecting doctrinal and other grounds of union, and report to the next session of the General Conference." Note that the Disciples' committee is limited to consultation with Free Baptists; but the Free Baptist committee may hold consultations with any Christian people desiring conferences on union. The Baptists and Congregationalists have invited these conferences and appointed committees accordingly. The Free Baptists, in their General Conference last September, declared their readiness "to form such alliances with other Christian bodies as may promise larger results in advancing the Lord's kingdom." They "regard loyalty to Christ and the Bible, and the independence of the local church, as the basis on which closer relationship may be obtained." They do not favor a union which will not "conserve all moral and legal obligations of the church as a corporation, and safeguard all vested rights;" nor do they regard any movements desirable that "do not promote the union of the whole denomination as a body;" and therefore "commend the brethren to refer all proposals and plans of union to the General Conference, the denominational head, that action, when taken, may be the action of the whole, and not of a part." It will be seen that nothing final can be undertaken by the Free Baptists until their committee shall have reported to the next session of the General Conference in 1907; and that many complicated matters must be considered before they will be ready to report. Moreover, the union must be "the union of the whole denomination as a body." Even one local church, adhering to the denominational doctrine, name and polity, would be able to hold all denominational property, and would succeed to all vested rights. This is not a problem of easy solution.

It will be recalled that the Free Baptists and Disciples have had this subject under discussion before. At the Annual Convention of this Society in October, 1888, W. L. Hayden, chairman of a similar committee, reported the result of a joint meeting held at Worcester, Mass., in September, 1888, as follows:

"It was unanimously agreed that the last commission of Christ, interpreted by the teachings and acts recorded in the New Testament, is the true basis of the union or consolidation of Christian bodies.

"It was further agreed that a union of Free Baptists and Disciples on this basis involves:

"1. The adoption of a name that honors Christ as the sole Head and authority of his church.

"2. The creed basis, that 'Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God.'

"3. Conformity of the worship to the model of the New Testament church: weekly communion, practiced by the Disciples, may be adopted by the several congregations of Free Baptists as they shall see that apostolic teaching and practice require it.

"4. The recognition of the independence of the congregation in local affairs, and methods of Christian work; and the duty of Christians and congregations to associate for mutual counsel and help in all general interests, and to co-operate for the advancement of the cause of Christ."

They further recommended an immediate co-operative union, as follows:

"1. By mutual recognition of the approved ministers, and the congregational acts of both bodies.

"2. By free exchange of pulpits and pastors.

"3. By uniting in evangelistic service and other Christian work.

"4. By uniting in one congregation where financial and numerical strength do not warrant two congregations."

This agreement was signed by all five of the members of the Disciples' committee, and by the chairman of the Free Baptist committee, who alone was present. Dr. Ball signed it later. Our Convention of that year passed resolutions "heartily approving of this action," and recommending "that the different congregations do all in their power to accomplish the proposed union along the lines indicated by the Conference committee." It does not appear that this joint report was ever presented for consideration to the General Conference of the Free Baptists.

Your committee met in Cleveland, O., February 21, 1905, and organized by electing E. B. Wakefield, chairman, and R. Moffett, secretary. We also appointed S. H. Bartlett as assistant secretary, with the privileges of a member of the committee. W. F. Cowden, of Washington, sent his resignation, with request that T. W. Phillips, of Pennsylvania, be elected in his place, which was done, and W. F. Cowden retained as advisory member. E. B. Wakefield, R. Moffett, L. L. Carpenter, J. S. Gray, T. W. Phillips and L. M. Sniff were appointed an Executive Committee, three to constitute a quorum. The secretary was authorized to open correspondence with the Free Baptist committee and ascertain (1) whether the committee would give their sanction to an immediate co-operate union, as suggested by the report of joint committee of 1888, without waiting for the action of General Conference. (We believe that co-operative union is the only practicable union for many years.)

(2) Whether they desired a joint meeting any time during this year, and if so, when and where?

To these inquiries no response has been received.

Late in May we were informed that the Free Baptist committee would be in session at Ocean Park, Me., July 14, and that the Disciples' committee, or any part of it, would be received for a short conference. Accordingly we sent J. M. Van Horn, of Worcester, Mass., and S. H. Bartlett, of Cleveland, O. They report that they were cordially received and accorded the privilege of addressing the committee along lines that would advance the cause of union between the two bodies. They left the meeting with assurance that the committee would report after the meeting had adjourned. No report has been received from the secretary, but we learn from the Morning Star that in view of the fact that the Baptists and Congregationalists, as well as Disciples, had requested conferences on union, "the Free Baptist committee decided to hold a meeting to meet representatives of these bodies at some mutuallly convenient time and place, possibly in connection with the National Church Federation Convention to be held in New York City next November." There will therefore be nothing for this committee to do until the Free Baptist committee shall have notified us of the time and place of their next meeting.

It is well known that the Disciples have been pleading, for nearly one hundred years, for the union of all Christian people by a return to the doctrine and practice of the church of Christ as found in the New Testament. We have believed that a return to the church of the first century is the way to the union for which Christ prayed. The keynote of this plea was given and expressed by Thomas Campbell in 1809: "That we may come fairly and firmly to original ground, upon clear and certain premises, and take up things just as the apostles left them, that thus disentangled from the accruing embarrassments of intervening ages, we may stand with evidence upon the same ground on which the church stood at the beginning."

The Disciples believe that they stand on this ground, and will not consent to union upon any other. And it is because the Free Baptists are reported as standing substantially on the same ground, that we have hope that these conferences and discussions will make this fact clear to both bodies, and show that union is already an accomplished fact. Between the Disciples and the pedobaptist bodies there is too little in common to encourage the same hope for a speedy union. It will take time. It may take much time; but all the signs of the times point clearly to a coming union, and we trust it will be the union for which Jesus prayed. His people are praying for it, and growing into it, and the more so as they come to recognize that they are "workers together with God."

We submit herewith a special report by the secretary to which we call the attention of the committee to which the report may be referred.

R. MOFFETT, Secretary. E. B. WAKEFIELD, Chairman.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT

The committee to consult with the Free Baptist committee on the subject of union between the two bodies has been handicapped for lack of funds. The St. Louis Convention made no appropriation for our use. The Board of the American Christian Missionary Society did not feel justified in allowing funds for our expenses. The editors of some of our leading weekly journals advised against the publication of appeals, in their columns, for voluntary offerings.. Very few of the members of this committee can afford the outlay necessary for traveling to any of the meetings of the committees. We think this difficulty can be relieved somewhat by a reconstruction of the committee, with a view to locating the members near some central point, and comparatively near places where regular meetings and joint meetings may be held. To enable the Convention to do this, the members of this committee have placed their resignations at your disposal.

Provision should be made, in some way, for the expenses of the committee. The expenses of the committee for postage and travel have been $48. Upon personal appeal to over 100 brethren, there has been contributed by fifteen persons $38, leaving $10 unprovided for. The committee to whom this will be referred, should recommend that expenses be paid from the treasury, or that provision be made for a special fund. Provision should be made also for filling any vacancy that may occur, and for proxies at stated meetings.

Respectfully,

R. MOFFETT, Secretary.

Motion was made by S. H. Bartlett, and carried, that the report be referred to a committee of five, who shall take into consideration the entire question, suggest ways and means of financing further work, and shall nominate a committee of twelve to have further conference with the committee of the Free Baptists and others on the subject of union.

The committee of five to consider the report on union with the Free Baptists was announced by the Chair as follows: S. H. Bartlett, Ohio; Clinton Lockhart, Iowa; H. C. Calhoun, Kentucky; W. G. Conley, California; J. H. Allen, Missouri.

After song, the Convention adjourned to meet at 2 P. M.

Benediction by Benj. L. Smith.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

The Convention met at 2 P. M., with First Vice-President A. C. Smither, of California, in the chair.

The song service was led by George A. Webb, of Oregon.

J. H. Garrison conducted the second Bible Study on the work of the Holy Spirit, which was gladly received by a large audience.

The Standing Committee on Evengelism presented its report through its Superintendent, W. J. Wright, as follows:

THE WORK OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

We aim to create, develop and direct the evangelistic spirit so as to make soul-winning the passion of every disciple of our Lord Jesus Christ, every preacher an evangelist, every member a herald, and every congregation a life-saving station.

We have organized an Evangelistic Bureau which seeks to bring together the churches and evangelists.

We are securing properly equipped ministers to give their time wholly to evangelistic work.

We are interesting young men in our colleges in the work of the ministry, especially evangelism.

We are compiling an evangelistic literature and creating one of our own.

We are conducting simultaneous evangelistic campaigns in cities and large districts.

We are conducting schools of evangelism.

We appeal to you for liberal offerings and bequests for this work. We will receive money on the annuity plan, paying five per cent. per annum to persons under fifty, and six per cent. to persons over fifty years of age.

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITEE ON EVANGELISM.

The work of this committee has been the not easy task of putting into practice an untested theory, the giving of form and activity to an idea, the clothing of dry bones with flesh, and the breathing of the breath of life into a new body.

PARTIAL REPORT.

This is a report for a portion of the year. The superintendent did not assume the duties of office until November, 1904; hence reports for but eleven months of the first year's endeavor to organize our evangelism.

Thus far we have but in a small measure explained to our brotherhood the reason for our existence as an organization, and have made some few of our brethren acquainted with our functions.

Our first aim has been to awaken a deeper, more wide-spread, more practical and abiding interest in Evangelism; to make soul-winning the passion of every preacher and disciple, and so to direct this passion as to save the waste of former years. This we have sought to do in various ways.

PROPAGANDA THROUGH PAPERS.

We have furnished many articles on Evangelism to our various papers, and have supplied a large portion of the matter for their special evangelistic numbers. Indeed, we have induced some of our editors to bring out these special numbers on Evangelism. It is worthy of note that our papers, in the past year, have been saying more on the different phases of Evangelism than before. This form of active propaganda is to be continued in larger measure by your committee as the months go by. We recognize our press as one of the best possible means to awaken, foster and direct the evangelistic spirit.

AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY.

In order to get our work fully before the preachers and churches we prepared a special evangelistic number of the AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY, which was wholly given to the work of this committee; we sent out circular letters and folders, concerning our aims and methods, to all our preachers and many others. We have set forth in these our own views of an organized Evangelism; we have sought to obtain from all the brethren, through these mediums, suggestion, advice and friendly criticism; and have conscientiously sought to make our organization an agency to help every preacher, to increase his efficiency as a soul-winner, and to save his ministry from ruts, dry rot and formalism. We hope to change in many cases the pulpit from a lecture platform into a life-saving station. We have tried to increase the preacher's power and efficiency, multiply his workers by enlisting his entire membership in the work of soul-winning, and thus extend more rapidly the borders of the kingdom of God.

DEPARTMENT OF EVANGELISM—AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY.

A Department of Evangelism has been conducted regularly in the AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY. In this has been published a long list of good books covering almost every phase of Evangelism. New books on this subject have been reviewed from month to month, evangelistic movements and methods have been freely discussed, and suggestions which we have thought might prove helpful have been inserted in every issue. This, we are glad to say, is proving helpful to many of our preachers and other Christian workers.

BUREAU OF EVANGELISM.

We are slowly and laboriously organizing an Evangelistic Bureau or an Intelligence Bureau concerning evangelists and singers. Many churches desire the services of these workers, but do not know how to go about securing them. They are unacquainted with the persons who do evangelistic preaching and singing. Hitherto about their only means of gaining information was to advertise in one of our papers for an evangelist. As a rule, they knew nothing of those who answered the advertisements, and in not a few cases have had cause to regret having called to their assistance the persons whom they did. On the other hand, many people, worthy men and women who are desirous of giving all their strength to evangelistic work, but who are not known to our brotherhood as evangelists, have been unable to secure steady employment, even though scores of congregations would have been glad to have availed themselves of their services.

We are slowly making up lists of evangelists and singers, and pastors who can hold an occasional meeting; we are seeking to obtain such accurate information regarding these persons, as will enable us wisely to assist the congregations in selecting workers from these available sources. We are aiming to get the workers into those particular fields for which they are best adapted, and are advising them against going to the places where, in our judgment, they may not reasonably hope to succeed.

We are encouraging every person of proper character and ability to do this work, but are discouraging those whom our brethren have decided to be lacking in the character and ability needed. Our excessive congregationalism results in a great waste of energy. Numbers are seeking the evangelist, and evangelists are seeking fields of labor, but they miss each other, and the would-be workers are too oft idle. In seeking to remedy this defect, we have brought together about 240 evangelists and congregations, and have likewise secured many singers for churches desiring them. This branch of our work will result in incalculable good as our Bureau perfects its information and as our opportunities are increased. Already hundreds of our preachers and congregations turn to us for information on whatsoever phase of Evangelism. This is what we desire. The more you use our services, the better able we will be to serve you.

SIMULTANEOUS CAMPAIGNS.

We have encouraged our brethren in cities where we have two or more congregations to conduct simultaneous campaigns, with a view to impressing these cities much more deeply than is possible when revivals are held separately. The response to this call has encouraged us and has set forth plainly to others the power of such campaigns.

This form of effort was given a trial in Chicago and Cleveland last winter. The preparation in these cities was insufficient, the force of workers inadequate, and some of our congregations did not join the movement. Nevertheless the results were such as to show the strength of concerted movements, and to encourage new and better trials of this plan for the future. They made for the unity of our forces; they made possible central meetings attended by representatives of all our congregations, and attracted an amount of attention and exerted an amount of influence for which no one congregation might hope. They secured the co-operation of other religious forces and received more notice in the daily papers than was possible in any other form of campaign.

Kansas City, Cincinnati and Pittsburg are among the cities planning for simultaneous campaigns in the early autumn. It is thought that the campaign in and about the last-named city will result in fifty of our congregations beginning meetings on October 29th. A fund of some $12,000 is being raised in advance to guarantee the expense of the campaign. Never in our history have the daily papers shown such eager desire to get the news concerning our movements as concerning this evangelistic campaign.

In Marion, Indiana, in July, was held a simultaneous tent campaign, which is unique in our history. Our two congregations there, co-operating with your committee, held three tent meetings conducted by three evangelists and three singers, in addition to the local forces. Some of the fruits of this campaign were about 150 conversions, one new congregation organized in a good part of the city, good-will and co-operation brought about between our two old congregations, which had not been working harmoniously. One of these congregations decided to sell its old property, which was too near the home of the other church, and move to another part of the city. In Tennessee fifty churches are planning to hold a simultaneous campaign.

SCHOOLS OF EVANGELISM.

We have conducted two Schools of Evangelism—one in Chautauqua, N. Y., and the other in Bethany Park, Indiana. Among the speakers and instructors have been H. O. Breeden, Chairman of your Standing Committee, F. D. Power, A. B. Philputt, C. S. Medbury, J. A. Lord, A. McLean and J. E. Pounds.

Better addresses and suggestions on Evangelism your Secretary has never heard. Being the first schools of the kind, they did not attract the number of evangelists and pastors which we expect in coming years, but they were intensely interesting and full of profit to all who came. Those who attended received instructions and inspiration which delighted them and equipped them far better for the work of soul-winning. We expect to have at least a half-dozen schools next summer, four already being assured.

EVANGELISTIC INSTITUTES AND CONFERENCES.

Rallies and conferences on Evangelism are being arranged for a number of our cities and strategic points for next autumn and winter. With a view to giving the evangelistic spirit to all their work, and making them from the beginning of their career successful soul-winners, we are planning to visit all our colleges, and address the students who are preparing for the ministry. We hope to point out to them the best methods of procedure, teach them the best methods, and so interest them as to make them avoid many mistakes which we have made, and otherwise increase their power and the fruitfulness of their work.

UNION REVIVAL MEETINGS.

Your Superintendent was permitted to work in two great union revivals during the winter. He fully believes that these meetings are the key which will admit both him and many of our preachers to the ranks of union evangelists. Wide observation leads to the conclusion that our Evangelism is sane, catholic and Scriptural, far beyond that of religious bodies about us. These are the qualities needed in union work. We urge our brethren to turn toward this kind of Evangelism, and to prepare themselves rightly to do it. We further urge them everywhere not only to enter into the union campaigns, but to stand lovingly and firmly for a full and fair representation on the preaching forces in all campaigns of which they are a part.

HOME MISSION WORK AND EVANGELISM.

With a view to building up self-supporting churches by single great evangelistic effort instead of by the longer process of pastoral care, we have tried a few meetings. The results thus far justify the conclusion, that, while this may occasionally be possible in villages and towns in the South and West, it is not possible, unless very rarely, in large cities in any part of our country. The expense of such campaigns in cities apparently is out of proportion to the results gained. As an occasional method it might be wise, but in the light of our present experience it is the exception and not the rule.

EVANGELISTIC LITERATURE.

Hundreds of churches, many preachers and some evangelists have written us asking for instruction as to conducting successful meetings. As far as possible we have furnished the desired information. In order the better to answer such calls, we are writing and publishing articles and tracts on various phases of evangelism. We are compiling a general literature of Evangelism, and have taken some steps towards creating such a literature of our own. We hope ere long to publish a book on Evangelism and a book on Methods. Call on us for cards and tracts relating to Evangelism.

PASTOR EVANGELISTS.

We are encouraging all pastors to be evangelists, not only in the service of their own congregation, where every sermon aims at turning people to our Lord, but likewise are seeking to have them released from their congregations once or twice during the year to hold evangelistic meetings for other churches. The demand for evangelists of the proper kind is far in excess of the supply. One of the best known of our evangelists received more than seventy calls for meetings to be held between September and Christmas. Your Superintendent has received since March more than two hundred such calls. Since the harvest is so very plenteous and the laborers so few, we are persuading an occasional man of education, ripe Christian culture and marked ability as an evangelist, to resign his pastorate and do evangelical work. Possibly our need is not so much a larger number of professional evangelists as an increased number of far better equipped men. These, by the grace of God, we are seeking to supply.

We are arousing an evangelistic sentiment in our Sunday-schools, so that all the workers there will aim, not simply at teaching facts concerning the Scriptures, but most of all will seek to bring into submission to our Lord Jesus Christ all those who enter the Sunday-school for instruction.

We have made some small progress toward making the Society of Christian Endeavor more largely an evangelistic force. We have overlooked no department of the church in our study of evangelistic problems, but have considered carefully how all the people of the Lord may be moulded into a body of evangelistic workers, and by prayerfully looking for and continually accepting the opportunities for Christian service in soul-winning, utilize at all times the ability which the Lord has given them, multiply the number of converts, and thus, through royal service, enter into the joy of their Lord.

We are taking practical steps toward the union of the Free Baptists and Disciples. Wherever the way is open we are supplying men to hold evangelistic meetings in Free Baptist churches. Some such meetings have already been held with good results in the way of mutual understanding and the nearer approach of the Free Baptist congregations to the terminology nomenclature and practices of the churches of Christ. A plan is on foot for a great campaign by our leading men in those congregations. Should we be permitted to carry out this plan, it will without doubt further advance the union project than any number of conferences, conventions and resolutions.

Your committee has a vision of a great work. It is a rule that the hosts of the Lord can be but slowly impressed with the ideas of a new service such as we have in mind. We are earnestly attempting great things for God, and through the responses of the brethren, whether immediate or long deferred, hope for great things from God.

In presenting the brethren with this incomplete report of the first few months of our activity, we thank you for your many helpful suggestions, kind words, expressions of cordial sympathy, and for ready help from not a few. It is the abiding conviction of our hearts that "hitherto hath the Lord helped us," hence we thank God and take courage.

Submitted in sincerity and fraternity,

H. O. BREEDEN, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RECOMMENDATIONS

Was presented by C. W. McPherson. We, your Committee on Recommendations. beg leave to make the following report: We suggest—

1. That our papers and ministers be requested to increase their efforts to impress upon the hearts of the brotherhood the vital truth that Home Missions, State and national, is the only base upon which our great enterprise can be built. We would greatly extend Church Extension, and multiply the work on the foreign field, and increase the efficiency of our educational enterprises, and diligently foster the sacred work of benevolence, and do our best for every other enterprise of our brotherhood, and in order to do this we would foster and strengthen our home missionary efforts and multiply the efficiency of our Home Boards.

2. That our National Benevolent Association be requested not to include the churches in their appeal on Easter Sunday, but that their appeals on that day be made only to the Bible schools. The May Offering is sandwiched between those made by the churches in March and by the children in June for Foreign Missions, and the Home Board needs a clear right of way through April. We plead that nothing be added which will tend to smother the May Offering.

3. That Boys' and Girls' Rally Day be urged for more general observance. Loyalty to our great plea, to missions and patriotism urge the general observance of this day.

4. That Idaho be made the field of operation for the missionary enterprise of our Christian Endeavor societies, and that they be urged to take up this great work with enthusiasm.

5. It was the recommendation of the Kansas City Convention in 1900 that we earnestly strive to complete a half-million dollars for Church Extension by the close of 1905. We are now $42,000 short of that amount. We urgently recommend that all our preachers and churches take the annual offering for Church Extension in September, that this goal may be reached, and that this offering be preceeded by giving information to the churches concerning the very persuasive facts connected with the history of our Church Extension movement.

6. That we express our hearty appreciation of the untiring efforts of our Boards and secretaries and missionaries for the great work which they have done, as is shown in the splendid reports made to this Convention, and we ask the prayers of all our people to God in their behalf.

CHALMERS MCPHERSON, JOHN C. HAY,

REPORT OF JOINT COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

The Joint Committee of the American Christian Missionary Society, the Foreign Christian Missionary Society and the Christian Woman's Board of Missions submits the following report:

WHEREAS, Almighty God has so graciously blessed us as a people during the past Convention year, adding to the saved of the earth such large numbers through our efforts in his kingdom, and has otherwise made us conservators of his purposes; and

WHEREAS, This Convention has been attended both in its planning and realization by such marked evidences of the divine pleasure; therefore be it resolved:

1. That we praise God from whom all blessings flow more adequately than in the past for all tokens of his mercy, the guidance of his word, the comfort of his Spirit, the benevolence of his love.

2. That we extend our thanks to the churches of California for their splendid efforts in behalf of this Convention, and especially are we indebted to the Bay City churches for the extension and wise preparations necessary for the success of the Convention.

3. That we remember with abiding gratitude the labors of the local committees on arrangements.

4. That we express our highest appreciation of the favors shown this Convention by the pastors and members of the First Congregational Church of this city, in whose building the sessions have been held.

5. That we recognize the fraternal spirit shown by such a large number of the churches of the city by offering their pulpits to our ministers last Lord's Day, and the warm reception we received within their sanctuaries.

6. We would remember the press of the city for the full and accurate reports of the proceedings of the Convention they have published in their columns.

7. That to the various railroads over which we have traveled is due our gratitude for concessions and especial care for our comfort.

8. That greetings be sent to Mrs. Helen E. Moses and Mrs. A. M. Atkinson, secretary and president of the National C. W. B. M.; to D. O. Smart, president of the Board of Church Extension, and Mrs. H. M. Meier, president of the National Benevolent Association, in view of their enforced absence from the Convention.

9. We would emphasize with unusual pleasure the successful labors of the various secretaries and Boards of our missionary organizations, and pray God that their leadership for the extension of the kingdom be characterized by the same wise policy in the future as in the past.

10. That the watchword of all our missionary interests be a "Forward Movement." Forgetting the things that are behind, let every department press forward.

MRS. ANNA R. ATWATER,
R. H. CROSSFIELD,
E. C. SANDERSON.

J. H. Garrison presented the

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON CENTENNIAL OF 1909

This is the fourth report your Standing Committee on our Centennial Celebration in 1909 has submitted to this Convention since its appointment at Omaha in 1902. It will be remembered that your committee in its preliminary report, in stating what form the celebration of the completion of the first century of our history as a religious movement should take, recommended the raising of large sums of money for the different branches of our missionary work, and for education and benevolence; the payment of all church debts, as far as practicable; the erection of new and worthy church buildings, thus strengthening in every way the material basis of our work.

In addition to this, however, it was recommended that increased efforts be put forth in evangelization, in Bible study, in the circulation of our religious journals, and in the deepening of the spiritual life of our members to the end that we might the more worthily present to the world the most admirable plea we are making for religious reformation. Your committee is glad to report that in all these respects there has been most encouraging progress. Each year has witnessed increased liberality in every branch of our missionary work, increased endowment, and improvement in the plants of our colleges, and a very enlarged response to the cry of the widow and the orphan. We believe, too, that there has been a corresponding increase in all that relates to the spiritual growth and development of our people. Not only has there been a most remarkable ingathering into the churches during the last few years, but never, we believe, have our evangelists been more zealous in obtaining spiritual results in their meetings, as well as numbers, nor have our pastors ever given more earnest care to the religious training of these converts.

While your committee, therefore, would congratulate the Convention and the brotherhood at large, upon the encouraging progress that has been made and upon the present state of the cause, we feel that it is our duty to remind the Convention that even greater and more systematic efforts are necessary on our part during the next four years if we are to worthily celebrate the centennial of a religious movement that means so much for the world. With a view of bringing about such increased efforts, your committee recommends the appointment by this Convention, or its authorization of such appointment by your committee, of a capable man who will devote himself with single-heartedness to the work of securing, during the next four years, a centennial fund that will be worthy of our numbers and of our cause. His efforts should not be limited to any one society or to any one department of our work, but he should seek to stimulate increased liberality in all departments of our work, and to secure special offerings from men of means for missions, education and benevolence.

Your committee would further recommend that the National Business Men's Association be requested, as its special task for the present, to assume the responsibility of providing an adequate support for such national representative of all our interests in behalf of this centennial fund. Such an enterprise would be worthy of such an organization, made up as it is of consecrated business men who desire to honor the Lord with their substance, and to devote a part of their time, talent and means, at least, for the promotion of the kingdom of God. It would not only furnish a rallying-cry for that organization, and crystalize its aims and energies for the time, in a great undertaking, but it would relieve our overburdened missionary societies and colleges of an additional financial responsibility which they might feel unable to assume.

Your committee would renew its recommendations in former reports as to efforts looking to the doubling of our membership and offerings, and the cultivation of that devotional spirit and purity of life which is both the proof and the fruitage of all worthy Christian efforts.

Your committee bears in mind your approval of its former recommendation relating to the preparation, by the time of our centennial, of a complete but succinct history of our movement, written in such style and published in such form and at such price as will favor a wide circulation of the work among our own and other people. In addition to that, however, we believe that very much more can be done than is being done to extend the knowledge of the principles of our movement, and to commend it to the public, by the wider circulation of our religious journals, and a much greater use of such tracts, pamphlets and books as are suited to give the desired information. This work can only be carried forward on a sufficiently large scale by the active co-operation of individual churches and members, and especially by ministers who, acting in conjunction with our publishing-houses, could within the next four years vastly accelerate the growth and influence of our work in restoring New Testament Christianity. If we value the principles for which we stand, and believe that we hold them in trust from God for the benefit of mankind, we ought to feel the weight of obligation to communicate the knowledge of them to the world in every possible way.

It is perhaps not too early to begin to plan more specifically the features of our Centennial Celebration in 1909, which, by common consent, seems to be fixed for Pittsburg, Pa. Your committee therefore recommend the appointment by this Convention of a sub-committee of seven, located in or contiguous to the city of Pittsburg, which shall co-operate with your Standing Committee in planning for the proposed celebration.

Finally, for the success of all our aims and plans, your committee would request the advice and suggestion of all who are interested in this work, their earnest co-operation, and their prayers to God for his blessing upon our efforts to magnify the name of Christ and promote his reign among men.

A. MCLEAN,
HELEN E. MOSES.

This report was adopted.

PITTSBURG COMMITTEE ON CENTENNIAL.

The committee of Pittsburg brethren provided for in the report of the Committee on Centennial was announced by the Chair as follows: W. R. Warren, R. S. Latimer, J. G. Slayter, W. H. Graham, George H. Oliver, T. E. Cramblet, Wallace Tharp.

J. H. Garrison moved the appointment of a committee of five to take under advisement the best time for holding our National Conventions; said committee to report at our next Convention, at Buffalo, N. Y., 1906.

COMMITTEE ON TIME OF NATIONAL CONVENTIONS.

The Chair afterward named the above committee as follows:

A. B. Philputt, Indianapolis; J. H. Garrison, St. Louis; A. McLean, Cincinnati; O. P. Spiegel, Birmingham; C. J. Tannar, Detroit.

At the call of the President, short but strong speeches on our great opportunity in Home Missions were made by Charles Reign Scoville, Chicago; J. B. Boen, Oklahoma; J. V. Updike, Ohio; S. M. Hunt, Massachusetts; A. E. Wilhite, California, and J. H. Garrison, Missouri.

After singing "America," the Convention adjourned with benediction by Benjamin L. Smith.

TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 22.

The Convention met at 7:30 p. m. in the First Congregational Church, A. C. Smither, California, First Vice-President, presiding.

Devotional exercises were conducted by S. H. Bartlett, of Cleveland, O.

The address in behalf of Church Extension was delivered by R. P. Shepherd, of California, "The Transmutation of Wealth."

The President's address by E. L. Powell, Louisville, Ky., closed the evening program.

The Convention adjourned with song and prayer, amid great enthusiasm.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 23.

The Convention met at 9 A. M. in the auditorium of the First Congregational Church, E. L. Powell, presiding.

After a song service, followed by prayer by T. A. Abbott, of Missouri, J. H. Garrison presented the third study of the work of the Holy Spirit. This was very eagerly received by a very large audience.

George L. Bush, of Texas, presented a very thoughtful address on "If All Christians Were Christians."

A. L. Orcutt, President of the Board of Ministerial Relief, presented the annual report on Ministerial Relief. For copy of this report, write S. L. Orcutt, 120 E. Market St., Indianapolis, Ind.

Bro. Orcutt announced that the offering for Ministerial Relief, at the communion services the preceding Lord's Day, amounted to $378.45.

I. J. Spencer, in behalf of the Board of Ministerial Relief, delivered a very strong, thoughtful address on ministerial support: "What God Hath Ordained."

Dr. Long, of Buffalo, N. Y., gave an advance welcome for the Convention at Buffalo, 1906.

The Committee on Christian Endeavor, through O. W. Lawrence, of Illinois, presented its report.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

Your Committee on Christian Endeavor beg leave to submit the following report:

1. We desire to commend most heartily the faithful work and self-sacrificing devotion of our National Superintendent, R. H. Waggener, during the past year; also the efficiency with which the various State Superintendents have performed their duties.

2. We desire to express our gratification with the uniform growth of the work of Christian Endeavor among our people during the past year. The secretary of the United Society very heartily commends the work done by the Disciples of Christ.

3. We recommend:

(1) That $300 be allowed the National Superintendent for expenses the coming year, the same to be paid to him as needed.

(2) That our several Missionary and Benevolent Boards designate the special work to which the Endeavorers should contribute, and we advise the societies to co-operate heartily with the Boards in the same.

4. We wish to express our deep concern in the spiritual power and opportunity of Christian Endeavor at this hour, and most earnestly request our societies and our ministers to give special attention to the development of proper material for pulpit supply and mission fields.

5. We rejoice in the active interest taken by the societies of our brotherhood in the "Increase and Betterment" campaign suggested by the United Society, and we trust our young people will take no second place in this splendid work the coming year.

O. W. LAWRENCE,
S. B. WHITE,
W. W. DENHAM,
H. A. DENTON,
W. S. CONLEY.

Prof. H. C. Calhoun, of Kentucky, presented the following:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE TO WHICH WAS REFERRED THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE WITH THE FREE BAPTISTS

Your committee begs leave to report as follows:

We recommend:

1. That the Standing Committee of Twelve be known as "The Committee on Union with the Free Baptists," and that it be a standing committee empowered also to confer concerning union with like committees of other religious bodies.

2. That the committee be empowered to raise funds for its expenses by private solicitation.

3. That the committee be empowered to adopt its own by-laws and rules of order, to fill vacancies that may occur during any year, and to invite to its assistance such other persons as it may deem wise.

4. That the committee report annually to this Convention, and be always subject to its direction.

5. That the committee for the coming year be constituted as follows, and that hereafter it be named annually by the regular nominating committee of the American Christian Missionary Society: Prof. E. B. Wakefield, Hiram, O.; Prof. B. S. Dean, Hiram, O.; Robert Moffett, Cleveland, O.; W. B. Ryan, Cleveland, O.; S. H. Bartlett, Cleveland, O.; C. A. Freer, Painesville, O.; George Darsie, Akron, O.; J. G. Slayter, Pittsburg, Pa.; T. W. Phillips, New Castle, Pa.; C. J. Tannar, Detroit, Mich.; J. M. VanHorn, Worcester, Mass.; M. E. Harlan, Brooklyn, N. Y.

6. We believe and are sure that there is no insurmountable obstacle to our union with the Free Baptists, and that such union ought to be consummated as speedily as circumstances will permit, and therefore recommend that the committee use every wise means to its accomplishment.

Respectfullly submitted,

CLINTON LOCKHART,
J. H. ALLEN,
W. G. CONLEY,
S. H. BARTLETT, Chairman.

On motion, this report was adopted.

The Chair then announced that we had reached the end of the program of the American Christian Missionary Society.

Benjamin L. Smith and A. McLean both spoke earnest words of commendation for the splendid work of the local Committee of Arrangements, and thanked that committee for their careful preparations and plans for this great Convention.

Walter M. White, chairman of the San Francisco committee, responded in a fitting speech.

The Convention sang the parting hymn, "God Be with You Till We Meet Again," and adjourned with prayer and benediction by J. H. Garrison, to meet in Buffalo, N. Y., in October, 1906.

W. W. SNIFF,
J. T. BOONE,
J. H. GHORMLEY, Secretaries.

E. L. POWELL,
President.

MINUTES OF GENERAL BOARD

SATURDAY, AUGUST 19.

The General Board of the American Christian Missionary Society met in the prayer-meeting rooms of the First Congregational Church—

In the absence of the Chairman, the meeting was called to order by Benjamin L. Smith.

On motion of G. A. Hoffmann, J. J. Morgan, of Kansas City, Mo., was elected Chairman.

G. A. Hoffmann was elected Secretary. The report of the Acting Board of Managers of the American Christian Missionary Society was presented by the Corresponding Secretary, Benjamin L. Smith. Bro. Smith called attention to the important parts of the report. This report was heartily applauded, and on motion was approved and referred to the Convention.

The Chairman appointed the following committees:

On Enrollment.—D. A. Russell, California; W. F. Turner, Missouri; Ed. F. Button, Kentucky.

On Nominations.—Henry Shadle, California; C. H. Winders, Missouri; W. S. Dickinson, Ohio.

George W. Muckley, Corresponding Secretary, presented the report of the Board of Church Extension. It was moved and seconded that the report be accepted and referred to the Convention; which motion was unanimously adopted.

The Board of Ministerial Relief then reported through A. L. Orcutt, President. Moved and seconded that the report be adopted and take the usual course. Approved.

Moved and seconded that a committee of five be appointed with a view of taking into consideration the work of uniting our Board of Ministerial Relief and Benevolent Association. After considerable discussion the motion was lost.

The report of the Statistical Secretary, G. A. Hoffmann, was referred to the Convention by consent.

R. H. Waggener then made a statement of the condition of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor. His statement showed a rapid growth in every respect of the Endeavor work. The report was adopted.

The Committee on Enrollment, through D. A. Russell, reported as follows:

We find 106 Life Directors and 26 representatives of our various State Boards of Missions. Eighteen States are represented in this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

D. A. RUSSELL,
W. F. TURNER,
E. F. BUTTON,
Committee.

The Committee on Nominations, through Henry Shadle, presented the following report:

Your Committee on Nomination of Officers for the General Board for next year, beg to submit the following report:

For President: C. B. Newnan, Indiana.

For Secretary: O. W. Lawrence, Illinois.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY SHADLE,
W. S. DICKINSON,
C. W. WINDERS,
Committee.

On motion of G. A. Miller, this report was accepted and adopted.

R. H. Waggener presented the report of the National Superintendent of Christian Endeavor, and with it his resignation as National Superintendent, stating that his other duties were so heavy that it would be impossible for him to continue as National Superintendent of Christian Endeavor.

On motion the report was adopted and referred to the Convention.

C. H. Winders, of Missouri, offered a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of five to inquire as to the wisdom of uniting the work of Ministerial Relief with the work of the Benevolent Association; said committee to report to the General Board a year hence.

After earnest discussion, this motion was defeated.

On motion, the meeting was adjourned with prayer and benediction by W. P. Aylesworth, of Nebraska.

G. A. HOFFMAN,
Sec. pro tem.

J. J. MORGAN,
Pres. pro tem.
